

Host Site: California Rural Legal Assistance, Inc.

Project: Advocating for Marginalized Communities

Location: Oxnard, Salinas, or Oakland

Description of Fellow Project:

CRLA is looking for an Education RSLC Fellow interested in providing legal advocacy and outreach to low-income students, parents, and guardians to decrease unlawful and disproportionate alternative school assignments and disciplinary action and to ensure equal access to services when an alternative school assignment is appropriate. This person should also be interested in providing assistance to parents who want to participate in advisory committees and implementation of California's Local Control Funding Formula, where parents have the right to provide their input regarding school funding decisions. The advocate should be a strong public speaker as performance of know-your-rights presentations to parents will be required.

Applicant Qualifications:

An ability to perform client intakes and presentations in Spanish is preferred.
